Introduction and Call to Worship

Jesus said: "God is God not of the dead but of the living." We rejoice to meet together in the presence of the living God to celebrate and share in this holy Eucharist.
(Luke 20:38)

Collect for this Sunday

Heavenly Lord,
you long for the world's salvation:
stir us from apathy,
restrain us from excess and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Collect for the Commemoration of the faithful departed

Everlasting God, our maker and redeemer, grant us, with all the faithful departed, the sure benefits of your Son's saving passion

and glorious resurrection, that, in the last day, when you gather up all things in Christ,
we may with them enjoy the fullness of your promises; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading

Job 19:23-27a

Despite his physical, emotional and spiritual torment, Job's faith in God is unshakeable: "I know that my redeemer lives."
'O that my words were written down!

O that they were inscribed in a book!

O that with an iron pen and with lead

they were engraved on a rock for ever!

For I know that my Redeemer lives,

and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;
and after my skin has been thus destroyed,

then in my flesh I shall see God,

²⁷ whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.

My heart faints within me!

Gospel

Sadducees try to trap Jesus in the discussion of a hypothetical question about death and resurrection in relation to the Jewish law. He dismisses their pretence with a reference to the episode of Moses and the burning bush.

²⁷ Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him ²⁸ and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless;

³⁰ then the second ³¹ and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless.
³² Finally the woman also died.
³³ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be?
For the seven had married her.'

³⁴ Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵ but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

Post Communion prayer

Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament
you give substance to our hope:
bring us at the last to that fullness of life for which we long;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Celtic Prayer
