MOTHERING SUNDAY4TH Sunday of Lent3RD APRIL 2011Welcome

As we come together to celebrate Mothering Sunday, we give thanks to God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, and give thanks for his presence with us.

If you normally receive Holy Communion you are welcome to receive Communion (the Sacraments of bread and wine) here too.

If you do not normally receive Holy Communion you are very welcome to come forward to receive a blessing (please carry a service book with you) you will never be alone.

If you are physically unable to come to the Altar rail the Priest will always bring the Sacrament to you.

Gluten Free Wafers If you need gluten free bread, please inform a Church Warden at the door before the service begins.

Collect

God of love, passionate and strong,
tender and careful:
watch over us and hold us
all the days of our life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading*Colossians 3:12-17(The Message)*

Paul encourages members of the Church to extend to each other the kindness and forgiveness which God extends to them in Christ.

¹²⁻¹⁴So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It's your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it.

¹⁵⁻¹⁷ Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Message—have the run of the house. Give it plenty of room in your lives. Instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And sing, sing your hearts out to God! Let every detail in your lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Father every step of the way.

Gospel

John 19:25b-27
(Good News Bible)

As death approaches, Jesus entrusts Mary to the care of the beloved disciple, and bids him to care for her as his own mother

²⁵ Standing close to Jesus' cross were his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.²⁶ Jesus saw his mother and the disciple he loved standing there; so he said to his mother,

He is your son.

²⁷ Then he said to the disciple,
She is your mother.
From that time the disciple took her to live in his home.

Post Communion prayer

Loving God,
as a mother feeds her children,
you feed us in this sacrament with the spiritual food and drink of eternal life:
help us who have tasted your goodness to grow in grace within the household of faith;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
