Collect

God, our light and our salvation:
illuminate our lives, that we may see your goodness in the land of the living, and looking on your beauty may be changed into the likeness of Jesus Christ our Lord.

1st Reading 2 Timothy 2. 8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

A Worker Approved by God

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Luke 17.11-19 Gospel

Jesus Cleanses Ten Lepers

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.'
And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Post Communion Prayer

God our Father, whose Son, the light unailing, has come from heaven to deliver the world from the darkness of ignorance: let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life, and walk in it without stumbling; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

DATES FOR THE DIARY

All Souls Memorial Service

We will be holding an All Souls memorial service on Sunday 3rd November at 3pm. It gives the opportunity to read out the names of the deceased and to light candles in their memory. The service will last less than an hour and it will be simple, quiet and peaceful. Please tell other members of your family, your friends and neighbours and invite them all to come along. There will be a cup of tea and cake following the service for those who wish to stay. If you would like any names read out, please write names in the purple folder at the back of the church.

Can you help by making a cake, or can you help to 'host' and serve? All offers to Janet Thank you.

Remembrance Sunday

This year there will be a service in St. Andrews Church on Remembrance Sunday November 10th at 10. 00. This service will end after the two minutes silence at 11.00. This will be followed by coffee in church.
Please come along to this village service.
