First Reading

Romans 6. 1b-11

Dying and Rising with Christ

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 10. 24-39

'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

Whom to Fear

'So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

'Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

Post Communion

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today

We welcome Bishop Rob Martin to our service today Please stay to the bring and share lunch in which Bishop Rob will be able to give us more news from Kenya.

Tonight

6.30pm Choral Evensong when our choir will be joined by the choir from Holy Trinity Southchurch, Southend. The Preacher at the service is the Dean of Chelmsford. Do try to come and bring a friend.

Church Fete

Saturday 12th July

If you have not volunteered to help at the Fete please have a word with Christine Mennie who has some stalls not covered.

I have now received Grand Draw tickets for this event with some good prizes. They are £1 per ticket . If you are in a position to sell tickets at work, please could you get in touch with Terry, who will give you tickets to sell.

If you would like to donate a prize please see Christine. It would be good to target some roads in Sandon to sell tickets and inform them about the fete. If you are able to help please have a word with Terry as he will be drawing up a list of roads to visit .Let's make this fete not only a success in fund raising but also an outreach to our Parish.

Sunday 3rd August

Tea on the Green

This is one of our outreach to the Village events. There will be tea and cake served on The Green at 3pm. At 4pm we are joined by the Salvation Army who will Accompany us for our Songs of Praise. Please bring friends and remember to bring a blanket or fold up chair to sit on.

World War 1 Commemoration Monday 4th August

There will be an Exhibition in church, lighting of candles during the day and a service at 10pm. Please inform friends about this event. As we have valuable items on display in church we will require welcomers to be in church between 10am and 5pm If you can help please sign the list at the back of the church.
