

Please Pray for

- Week of prayer for Christian Unity.
- The Diocese of London and the Rt. Revd & Tt. Hon. Richard Chartres, Bishop.
- Winter is now firmly underway in Iraq, and is set to stay for the next three months. The freezing temperatures could spell illness or even death for the most vulnerable displaced people.
- The Ebola outbreak has reached a grim new year milestone, claiming more than 8,000 lives we pray for all families affected by Ebola and we pray for all medical staff working with Ebola.
- We remember the homeless and we remember the work of CHES.
- For the elderly who find this time of the year hard.
- For all those who live and work in Butts Green Road.
- For Headteacher, Staff, Governors and students at Sandon School.

- The sick and those who care for them especially Barbara Parish, Chloe King, Simon Bobeldijk, Liz, Simon Mills, Susannah Bedwell, Edward Gilder, Bishop John, Mike Mercer, Pauline Butterworth Henry Smith, Paul Marren, Peter Elwell, Robert Terry Donald Sergeant and others known to us.
- Those who have died recently and those who mourn them.

Reading Revelation 5. 1-10

The Scroll and the Lamb

Then I saw in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals; and I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?' And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. Then one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.' Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: 'You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation; you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.'
