

Please Pray for

- Christian Aid Week begins today: God of the impossible, we pray for justice, peace and reconciliation. When the challenges seem too many, remind us of your resurrection power, and the miracles of your love that happen whenever injustice is dismantled and rebuilt with peace. Help us to hope that the impossible can happen and live as if it might do so today. Amen.
- For the Diocese of Nike (Nigeria) and for their Bishop the Rt. Revd Evans Jonathan Ibeagha
- Those affected by the catastrophic earthquake in Nepal: for families who are grieving and have lost loved ones; for people facing living in difficult conditions; for relief workers rushing to provide emergency aid.

Risen Christ, by the lakeside you renewed your call to your disciples: help your Church to obey your command and draw the nations to the fire of your love, to the glory of God the Father.

Reading
Psalm 8

Lord, our Lord, how excellent is your name in all the earth! You set your glory above the heavens! Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have established strength on account of your adversaries, in order to silence the enemy and vengeful foe.

When I look at the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you established—what is man that you take notice of him, or the son of man that you pay attention to him?
You made him a little less than divine, but you crowned him with glory and honour.
You gave him dominion over the work of your hands, you put all things under his feet:
Sheep and cattle—all of them, wild creatures of the field, birds in the sky, fish in the sea— whatever moves through the currents of the oceans.
Lord, our Lord, how excellent is your name in all the earth.

Gospel Reading
John 15. 9-17

John 15. 9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.
