2 Corinthians 5. 6-10 14-17

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. For while we are still in this tent, we groan under our burden, because we wish not to be unclothed but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

Gospel Reading Mark 4. 26-34

The Parable of the Growing Seed

He also said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.'

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

He also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.'

The Use of Parables

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Pilgrim Course

Continues on Wednesday @ 7pm for a meal or 7.30 pm when the session begins in St. Andrew's Room. It's not too late to join.

Church Fete Saturday 11th July

Work is well under way for this year's fete. We need the following help.

- If you could help put up stalls in the morning from 10am
 - If you can volunteer to help on a stall
 - If you could help clear up at the end of the fete at 4pm
 - Could you bring 2 or 3 bottles for the bottle stall and put them in the box at the back of the church
 - Could you help sell raffle tickets to your friends or workmates please see Terry.
 - Could you make cakes and preserves for the cake stall
 - Plants for the plant stall
 - Raffle prizes
 - Unwanted items for the bric a brac stall
- Please put all items at the back of the church. Let Christine Mennie know if you can do any of the items above?

Saturday 4th July Bradwell Pilgrimage

Starting at St Thomas' Church in the centre of Bradwell Village, the pilgrimage gathering walks down to the site of St. Peter's on the Wall (approximately 2 miles). We recommend you aim to arrive by 10.30am to avoid the rush. Once arrived at the Chapel, Pilgrims are encouraged to have their lunch and to take part in the opening worship service before visiting the variety of stalls, speakers, workshops and activities available. The afternoon concludes with community singing and a final act of worship, finishing around 3.30pm
