Rules for the New Life

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Gospel Reading

John 6. 35, 51-51

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

Post Collect

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Tea on the Green and Songs of Praise

Today Sunday the 9th August at 3pm for tea and 4pm for the Songs of Praise. Please bring a fold up chair or blanket to sit on. We will be joined by the Salvation Army and Charlie Kosla will be speaking. Do come and join us and bring friends and relations to this special event.

Messy Church coming to Sandon

We are still in need of a few more helpers on the third Sunday of September, October and November. We need help in preparing food, registering the children when they arrive as well as making drinks for the adults and children. If you can help please have a word with Terry. The afternoon begins at 3pm and ends at 5pm.

Holy Dusters Wednesday 12th August

This is the new name for our monthly cleaners. We meet at 9.30am in church and clean for about an hour and then have tea and coffee. The more help we get the quicker the task is done. There are various jobs to be done, polishing, cleaning brass, vacuuming, and of course making the tea and coffee. Hope to see you.

Churchyard Morning Saturday 15th August

Having come 3rd in the recent Churchyard competition we need to keep up our standards. Please come along for an hour or two to get jobs done as well as fellowship with each other.
