Warning against Partiality

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, 'Have a seat here, please', while to the one who is poor you say, 'Stand there', or, 'Sit at my feet', have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you? You do well if you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.

Faith without Works Is Dead

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill', and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Gospel Reading

Mark 7. 24-end

The Syrophenician Woman's Faith

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, 'Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' But she answered him, 'Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.' Then he said to her, 'For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter.' So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Jesus Cures a Deaf Man

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, 'Ephphatha', that is, 'Be opened.' And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, 'He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.'

Post Collect

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Ride and Stride next Saturday

Thank you for all who have volunteered to welcome the cyclists next Saturday. Please sponsor David Farrar and John Gruby as they will be taking part in the Ride and Stride. Its not too late to pick up a sponsor form today.

Harvest Festival Sunday 27th September

We will this year combine our Harvest Festival with the celebration of the Churchyard achievement. Chelmsford's Deputy Mayor and Mayoress will be in attendance, together with members of RCCE, the awarding organisation for the best Kept Churchyard, our Uniformed Organisations, and hopefully you. This will be followed by our Harvest bring and Share Lunch. Please join us after the service. Thank you to those who have signed up to bring food for lunch. Please could we have a few more people sign the list.

Pilgrim Course

This course began on Wednesday, but it is not too late to join us this Wednesday.

This course will explore the core of Christian belief in greater depth through the Nicene and Apostle's Creeds. Its six sessions aim to equip participants with an understanding of these priceless resources for living the Christian life and for knowing God better.

Please sign the list at the back of the church to help us with refreshments and books needed for the course.

Church Yard clean up

We will be holding a working morning in the Churchyard on Saturday 26th September from 10am. We would like to have a tidy up the day before our Harvest Festival as well as celebrating our competition result. We will be having special guests coming on the 27th September. If you can help it would be much appreciated. There is the promise of bread pudding or was it bacon butties. Come and find out on Saturday 26th September at 10am till lunch time.
