Please Pray for

- Today is Racial Justice Sunday. We pray.
- Loving Lord we are all wonderfully made in your image. Help the world to see you in each face, to see that each person has value, and each person has a heart and each person has a name.
- We thank you for all your people who work tirelessly to bring racism to an end.
- The Diocese of South Dakota (Province V1) and for their Bishop The Rt. Revd. John Tarrant.
- Bishop Rob and his wife Sue, Rev Joshua Umuro, Abraham and Jackson and all the people in our linked Dioceses in Kenya.
- For Terry's visit to Kenya next month.
- All who visit our church, that they will sense God's presence.
- For all those who live in East Hanningfield Road
- The thousands of refugees fleeing to Europe at this time. We pray that lives will be spared.
- Those who work in the food and farming industry
- The sick and those who care for them especially Chloe King, Simon Bobeldijk, Liz, Simon Mills, Susannah Bedwell, Pauline Butterworth, , Alec Sergeant, Bishop John, , Joan, Daisy, Emily, Alex and Joy Wilkinson, Kingsley, Barbara Parish, Barbara Underwood and others known to us.

Taming the Tongue

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Gospel Reading Mark 8.27-end

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that I am?' And they answered him, 'John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.' He asked them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered him, 'You are the Messiah.' And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, 'Get behind me, Satan!

For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'

Harvest Festival Sunday 27th September

Don't forget to put this date into your diary. As many of you know St. Andrew's came 3rd in the Best kept Churchyard in Essex.

We will this year combine our Harvest Festival with the celebration of the Churchyard achievement. Chelmsford's Deputy Mayor and Mayoress will be in attendance, together with members of RCCE, the awarding organisation for the best Kept Churchyard, our Uniformed Organisations, and hopefully you. This will be followed by our Harvest Lunch. Please join us after the service. Thank you to those who have signed up to bring food for lunch. Please could we have a few more people sign the list.

Pilgrim Course

The course began on Wednesday 2nd September and lasts for 6 weeks ending on Wednesday 7th October. This course will explore the core of Christian belief in greater depth through the Nicene and Apostle's Creeds. Its six sessions aim to equip participants with an understanding of these priceless resources for living the Christian life and for knowing God better.

Ladies Breakfast Saturday 17th October
