Job 23. 1-9, 16-end

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Bitter

Then Job answered:

'Today also my complaint is bitter;

his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

O that I knew where I might find him that I might come even to his dwelling!

I would lay my case before him,

and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,

and understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?

No; but he would give heed to me.

There an upright person could reason with him,

and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.

'If I go forward, he is not there;

or backward, I cannot perceive him;

on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;

I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

God has made my heart faint;

the Almighty has terrified me;

If only I could vanish in darkness,

and thick darkness would cover my face!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10. 17-31

The Rich Man

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother." ' He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Tea and Chat

Tea and Chat is every Tuesday morning at 10.15am. It follows the 9.30am Holy Communion Service. It's a good chance to catch up with what is going on and occasionally we have a visitor who talks about something of interest and answers questions. There have also been quizzes, Beetle Drives. Why not give it a try and bring a friend. There is always a warm welcome.

Coming Soon

Pat Cotton has offered to hold a communion and time for prayer at her home 29 Alexander Mews on the first Thursday of the month at 9.30am. The first service will be on Thursday 5th November. It would be good to have place in the Howe Green area of our parish and I do recommend this opportunity to you.

Operation Christmas Child

Shoebox Service will be held on Sunday 15th November at 10am. This will be an ALL AGE Communion Service when we will collect the full shoeboxes. Please pick up a leaflet at the back of the church which gives full details of how to pack your shoebox as well as gift suggestions.

Vision and Giving

On Sunday 29th November we are holding an important event when we are looking at our vision for St. Andrews. We have the Dean of Chelmsford joining us. At this point please put the date in your diary. There will be a Sung Eucharist at 10am and then we will go to the Village Hall at 11.45am where we will have a light lunch and a presentation on behalf of our PCC and a talk from Dean Nicholas Henshall. It is important that all attend.
