St Valentine's Prayer

Jesus, as you blessed marriage in the wedding at Cana, be with those who have been married in this church and those preparing for marriage. God of wonder and of joy: grace comes from you, and you alone are the source of life and love. Without you, we cannot please you; without your love, our deeds are worth nothing. Send your Holy Spirit, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, that we may worship you now with thankful hearts and serve you always with willing minds; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect

Heavenly Father, your Son battled with the powers of darkness, and grew closer to you in the desert: help us to use these days to grow in wisdom and prayer that we may witness to your saving love in Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

Reading Psalm 91. 1-2 9-16

You who live in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,
will say to the LORD, 'My refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust.'
Because you have made the LORD your refuge,
the Most High your dwelling-place,
no evil shall befall you,
no scourge come near your tent.
For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.
You will tread on the lion and the adder,
the young lion and the serpent you will trample
under foot.
Those who love me, I will deliver;
I will protect those who know my name.
When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will be with them in trouble,
I will rescue them and honour them.
With long life I will satisfy them,
and show them my salvation.

Gospel Reading Luke 4. 1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone." ' Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him." ' Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone." ' Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test." ' When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Lent Course

The Long Road to Heaven

We will use The Long Road to Heaven by Tim Heaton, a Lent Course based on the film The Way. Please refer to Terry's letter in the magazine for more information regarding the background of this course. There will then be five sessions during Lent all held in St. Andrews Room. This will be held on Wednesday evenings during Lent.

Day of Prayer

Saturday 5th March 2016

During Lent, Bishop John Wraw is asking each Deanery to have a day of prayer with him. Chelmsford South Deanery are hosting the Bishop on Saturday 5th March. Please consider how you might join in. Pray at home with friends. Pray at your church for an hour or so. Please sign the sheet at the back of the church especially if you are attending the first or last event where numbers are required for food. I hope we as a church can support this day.

Lent Lunches

The first was held yesterday. The second one will be held on Saturday 19th March from 12 – 2pm when Terry will be showing pictures of his recent visit to Kenya. At the Lent Lunch we will be collecting for the Bishop's Lent Appeal which this year is supporting the Sustainable Agricultural Livelihoods Initiative (SALI) project. Please read about this in the February copy of The Month available at the back of the church.

What are you doing extra for Lent this year?

Christian Aid has produced a calendar of things that you can do during Lent. There are adult and children calendar. Why not take one from the back of the church and see if you can be challenged this Lent. They can be found in the February Month as well as on the table at the back of the Church. Please take one.

Saturday 12th March

Men's Breakfast

This will be at Butts Green Garden Centre at 8.30am and our speaker is Revd Michael Hall who was until recently vicar at All Saints Chelmsford. He will be talking about how Star Trek influenced his faith. Please sign the list on the table at the back of the church to reserve your breakfast.

Saturday 19th March

Morning of prayer in St. Andrew's

9am Celtic Morning Prayer
9.20am till 11.30am Time of individual prayer focusing on Our Church, Our City and Our World.
11.30am An informal communion service
This will be followed by our final Lent lunch and Terry's presentation of his recent visit to Kenya. I do hope that you will be able to support this morning and come in and go as you please.
