Paul's Vindication of His Apostleship

For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus.

Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him for fifteen days; but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord's brother. In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie! Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ; they only heard it said, 'The one who formerly was persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.' And they glorified God because of me.

Gospel Reading Luke 7. 11-17

Jesus Raises the Widow's Son at Nain

Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.' Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, 'Young man, I say to you, rise!' The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, 'A great prophet has risen among us!' and 'God has looked favourably on his people!' This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Post Communion

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son: sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sunday 12th June Special Service the commemorate the 90th Birthday of the Queen

The service will begin at 10am when we welcome our uniformed organisations who will renew their promises to God and the Queen. Our preacher will be the Revd. Canon Ann Easter, Chaplain to the Queen. We will also welcome the Mayor of Chelmsford and members of the Parish Council. Sandon School will provide some royal music. After the service there will be a free BBQ and our bell ringers will ring a quarter peel at 12.30pm to mark the royal occasion. Please bring friends and neighbours to this special event. Please sign the list at the back of the church if you are attending in order to help with the catering.

Saturday 11th June

Church yard morning with bread pudding

Please come between 10am and 12noon to help clear up the churchyard ready for the Celebration Service on the 12th June.

Hymns on Sundays

At our Vision morning in April it was suggested that members of the congregation may like to pick a hymn they would like sung on a Sunday morning. Please could you write the hymn in our hymn book that you would like sung so that it can be included in our services in the future.
