God our saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

1st Reading Genesis 22. 1-14

After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt-offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt-offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.' Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, 'Father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?' Abraham said, 'God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son.' So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.' And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt-offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place 'The LORD will provide'; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.'

Gospel Reading Matthew 10. 40-end

'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour Amen.

Invitation

You are invited to join us on Sunday 9 July at 4pm at Great Waltham vicarage to meet Bishop Qampicha from the Diocese of Marsabit, Kenya and Revd Susan Kariuki, director of Development for Kirinyaga.

We will be having non –alcoholic Pimms and nibbles. Please bring a garden chair or rug to sit on. We will invite Qampicha and Susan to speak to us and you will be invited to contribute to the Friends of Marsabit. Please sign sheet at back of church. In event of very large numbers and or rain we may move to Great Waltham church.

Oh I do like to be beside the seaside!

Come and join in the fun on Tuesday 1st August. 11am-8pmish. We are going to Bradwell on Sea for a picnic, fun and games, building sandcastles, finishing up with the best fish and chips. A chance to relax and spend time together. Suitable for old and young alike. All welcome. Bring a picnic lunch and something to sit on. Hopefully the weather will be kind, but it can be a bit windy. If you would like to go we can share cars. Please sign list on the welcome table.

- We are in need items for the Tombola stall. Please place items in the box at the back of the church. These can be condiments, soft drinks, cans of food, chocolate, tea, sugar, coffee etc.
- We need old crockery to be smashed in the Crazy kitchen. If you have any old crockery you would like to dispose of please place it in the bag in the churchyard on the far left as you enter the church gate.
- We need items for the raffle.
- Offers of cakes for the cake stall please have a word with Liz Bobeldijk
- Bottles of wine.
- If you would like to help in anyway please have a word with Terry.
